F) Fun Week

Following Blakeney Regatta there will be events each day from Monday to Friday the 14th August. It is planned to include a little race training but mainly cruises and family orientated events. This will be organised by our Commodore Joe Carr and Marc Atkinson following the success of their week last year. This is an opportunity for non-racing members to sail in company purely for fun and enjoyment.

G) MWHS (Mid Week Holiday Sailing)

Commencing on Tuesday the 18th August and continuing each day until Sunday the 23rd this is the week for expert and novice sailors alike to hone their racing skills by competing in eleven separate races. Everyone improves during a concentrated spell like this and the skills developed will add to your enjoyment of sailing in the future. The week includes the Club AGM and the years main social event (a great success last year) the Sailing Club Dinner.

H) Class Trophies for Lasers, Seaflys and Phantoms.

These races will include all others classes.

I) Getting Started

If you would like to try your hand at racing but would like help in getting started please contact any Committee member who will try to arrange for an experienced crew to go with you or take you out, to help you get started.

* Asterisks on sailing programme denote Cup presentation dates. Up to Aug. 31st. presentations will be made in the Clubhouse on the last day of each series as soon as possible after racing.

 Presentations for MWHS races will be made after racing on Sunday the 23rd August.
